COMING JULY 2024

In a realm of whimsy and enchantment, where dreams take flight, A tale unfolds of Beauty and a Beast, in the soft glow of night. A pantomime of magic, where the stage comes alive, With Beauty's grace and Beast's fierce heart, a narrative to contrive.

Upon the velvet curtains, a story woven in gold, Of a beauty pure and tender, a tale to be told. In the heart of an enchanted castle, shadows dance, Where a cursed prince awaits, trapped in a fateful trance.

Beauty, a rose in the garden of life, Waltzes through the story, free from strife. Her spirit untamed, her kindness a guide, In the labyrinth of darkness, where fears reside.

The Beast, a creature misunderstood, Cursed by fate, In a desolate wood. Yet beneath the fur and fearsome mask, Lies a heart longing, a soul to unmask.

In the grand ballroom, where stars softly gleam, Beauty and Beast find solace, a shared dream. A waltz of redemption, a dance of delight, As love blossoms, banishing the eternal night.

The pantomime unfolds with laughter and tears, As the characters twirl through hopes and fears. Villains with schemes, and heroes with might, Yet in the end, love conquers, bathed in the spotlight.

The enchanted rose, a symbol of time, Ticking away, a rhythm sublime. A race 'gainst the petals, a fate to defy, In the realm of the pantomime, where fantasies fly.

So let the curtain fall, the story complete, A Beauty and Beast pantomime, a tale sweet. For in the magic of theater, we find release, A timeless tale of beauty, and a beast's heart, at peace.
