About the show:

"Dear Evan Hansen" is a Tony Award-winning musical that explores themes of social anxiety, mental health, and the quest for connection in a contemporary setting.

Overview

"Dear Evan Hansen" is a musical with music and lyrics by Benj Pasek and Justin Paul, and a book by Steven Levenson. It premiered at the Arena Stage in Washington, D.C. in July 2015, followed by an Off-Broadway run in 2016, and opened on Broadway at the Music Box Theatre in December 2016. The show closed on September 18, 2022, after receiving critical acclaim and winning six Tony Awards, including Best Musical and Best Score.

Plot Summary

The story follows Evan Hansen, a high school senior struggling with social anxiety. After a classmate, Connor Murphy, takes his own life, Evan becomes embroiled in a web of lies when he pretends to be Connor's close friend to comfort Connor's grieving family. This deception leads to unexpected popularity and a deeper exploration of themes such as loneliness, mental health, and the impact of social media
